

Let Go

Written & illustrated by Trev

It is time to let you go.

I do not want to.

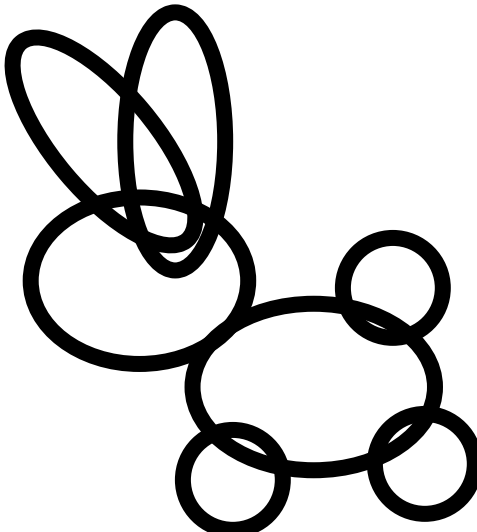

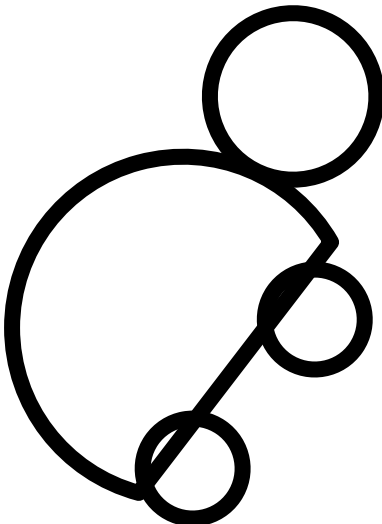

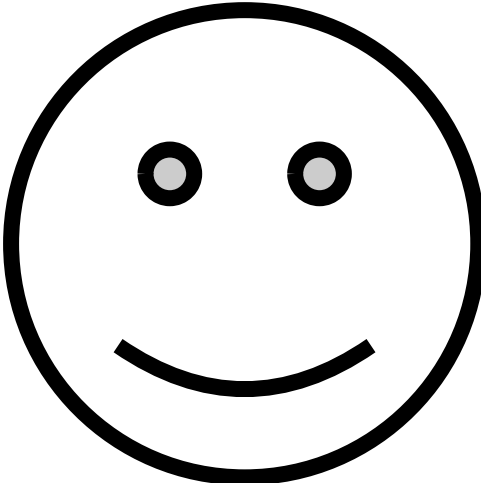

We had fun together.

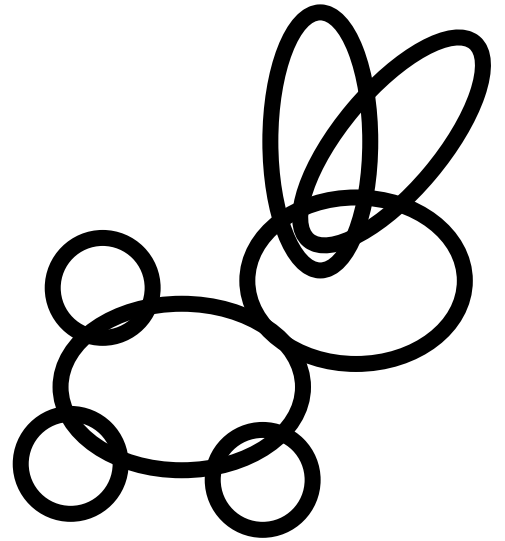

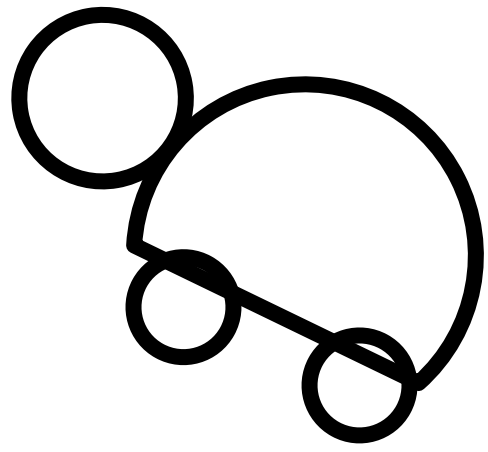

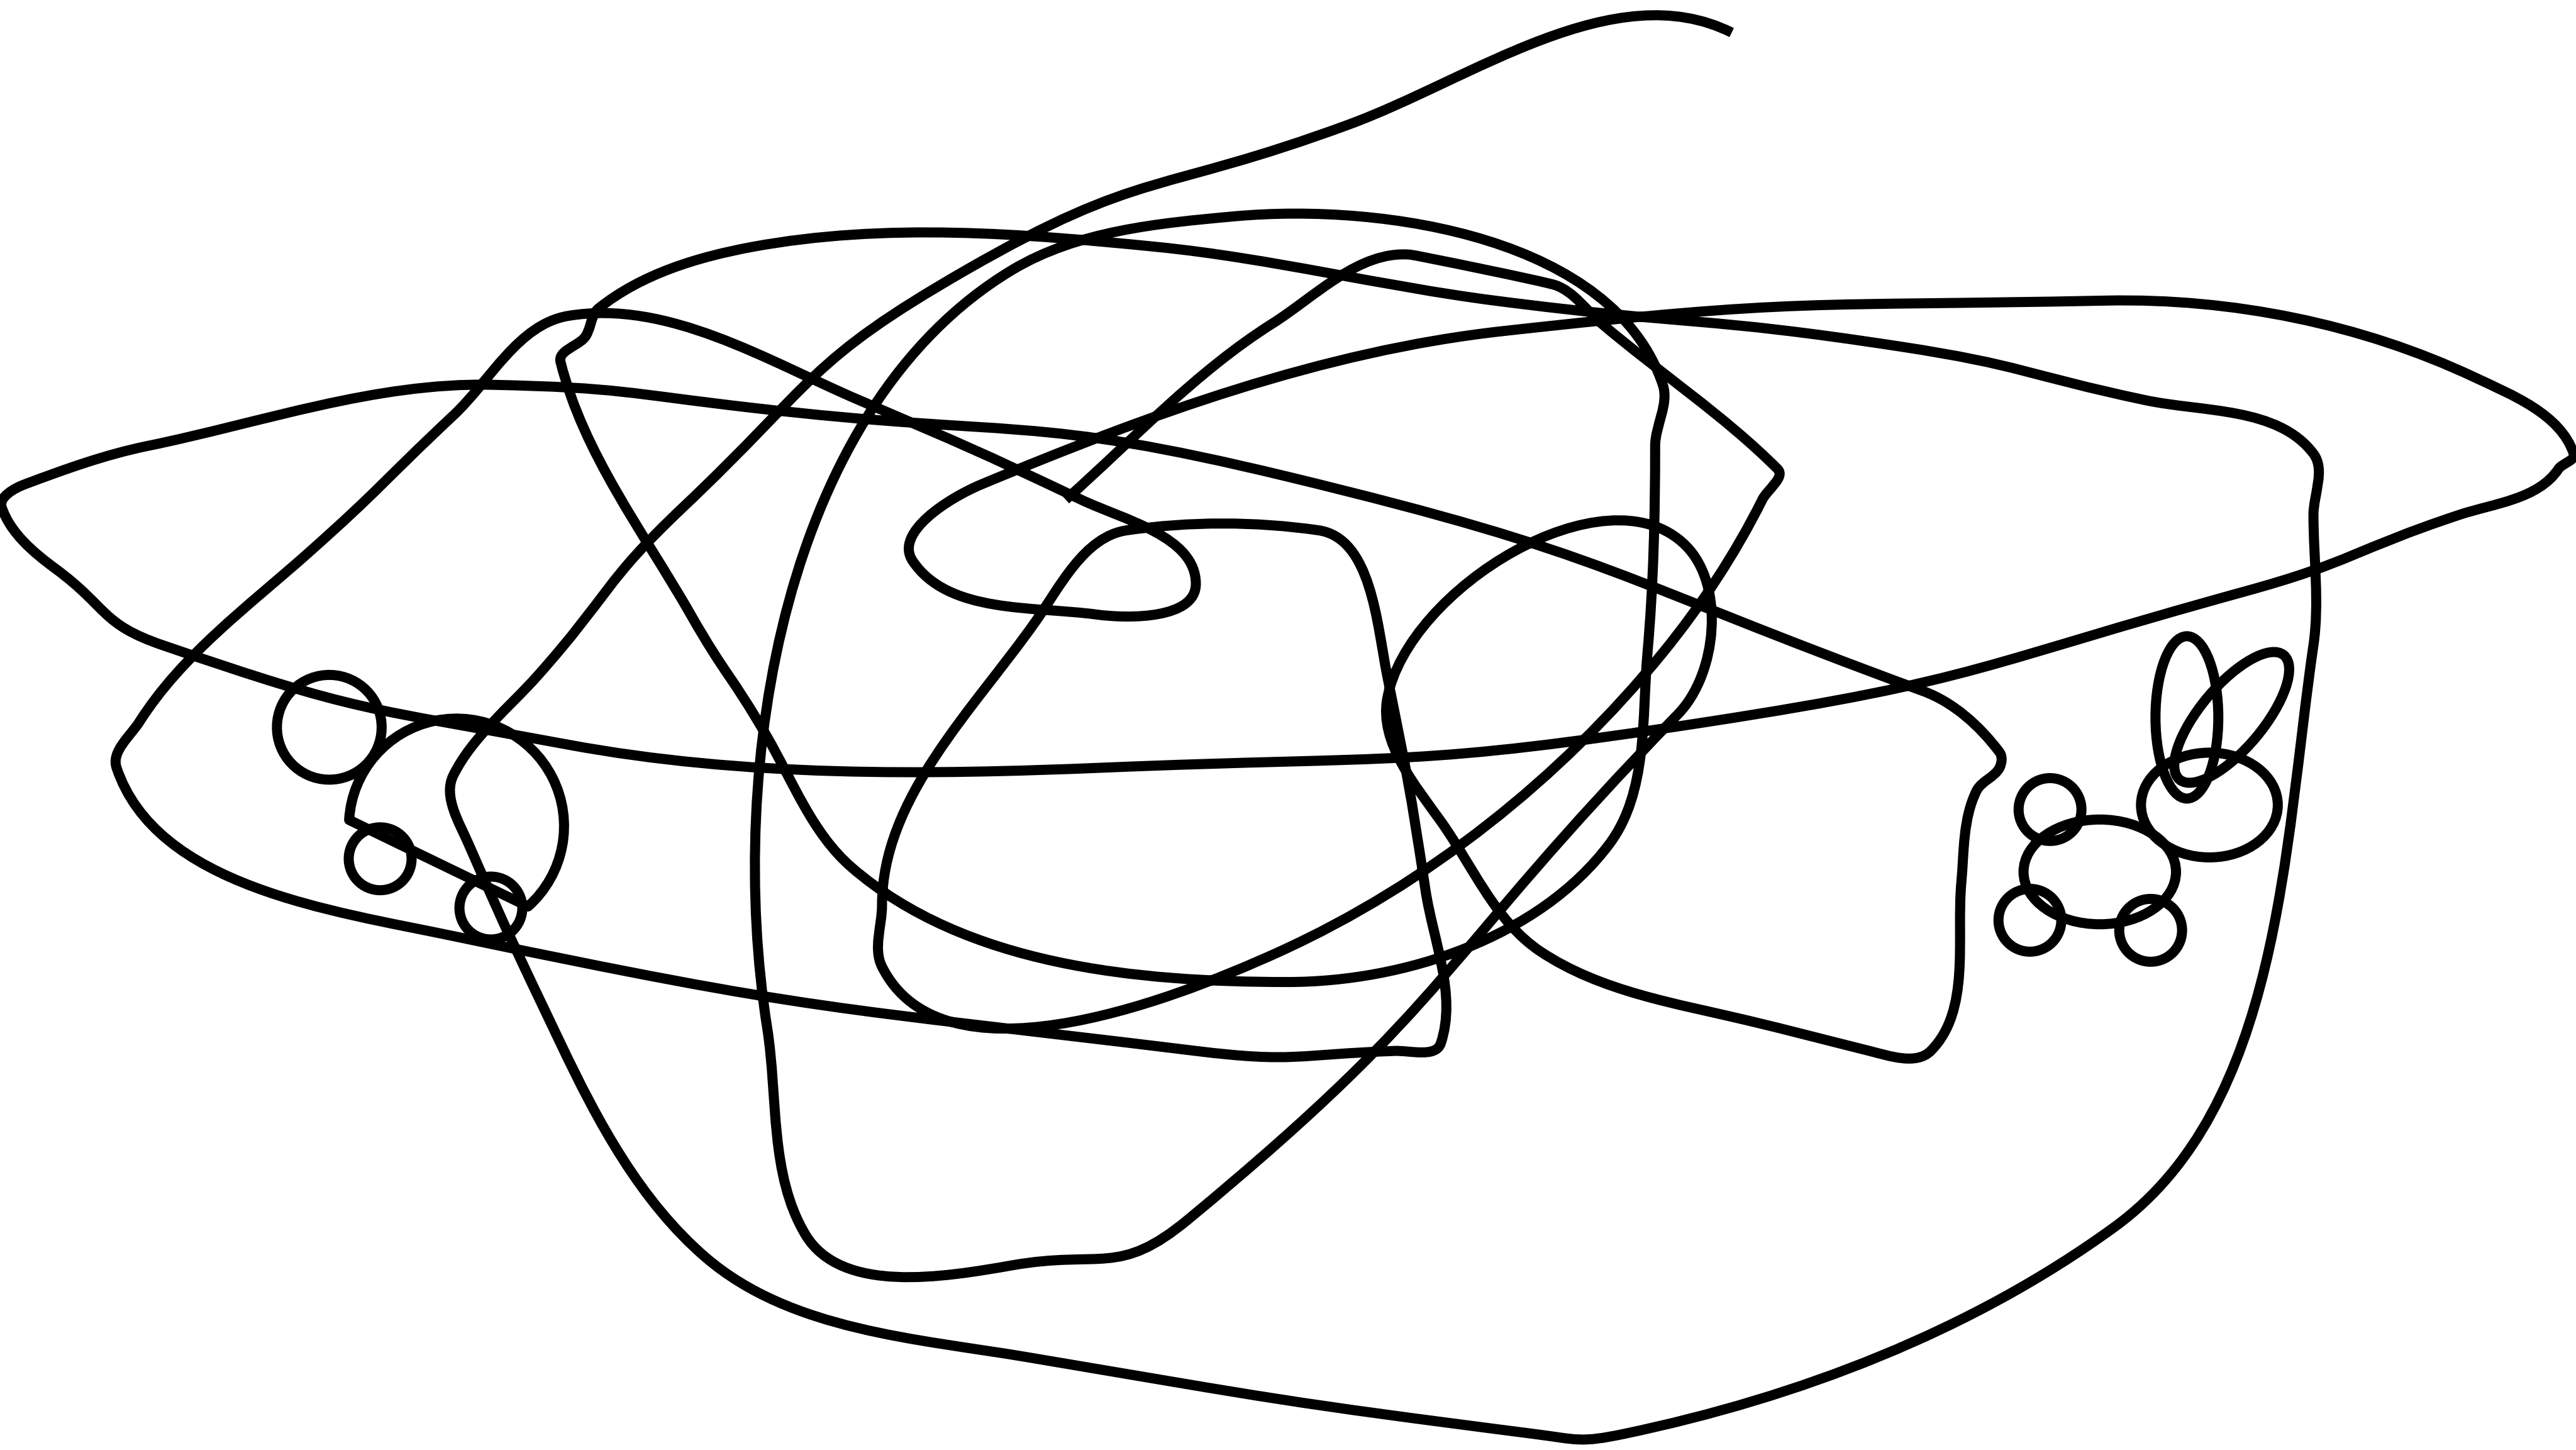

I have no regrets.

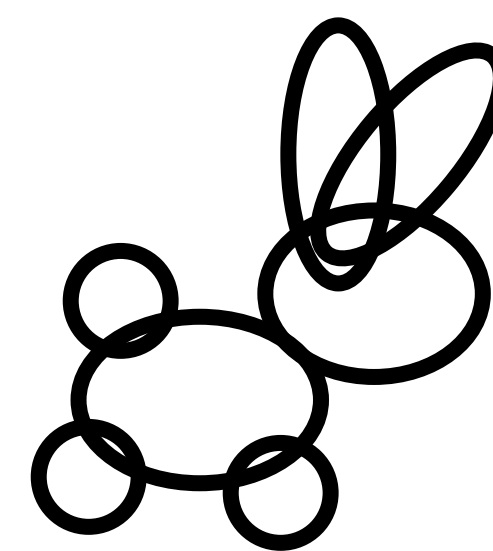

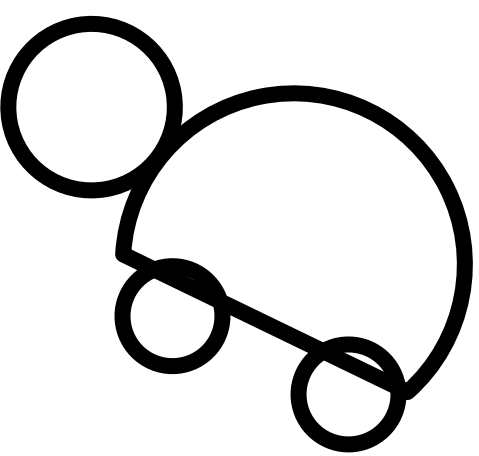

But I know you have grown apart from me.

I made a mess of this.

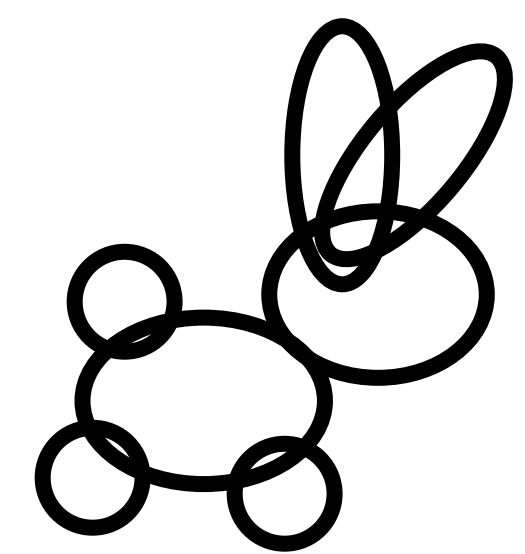

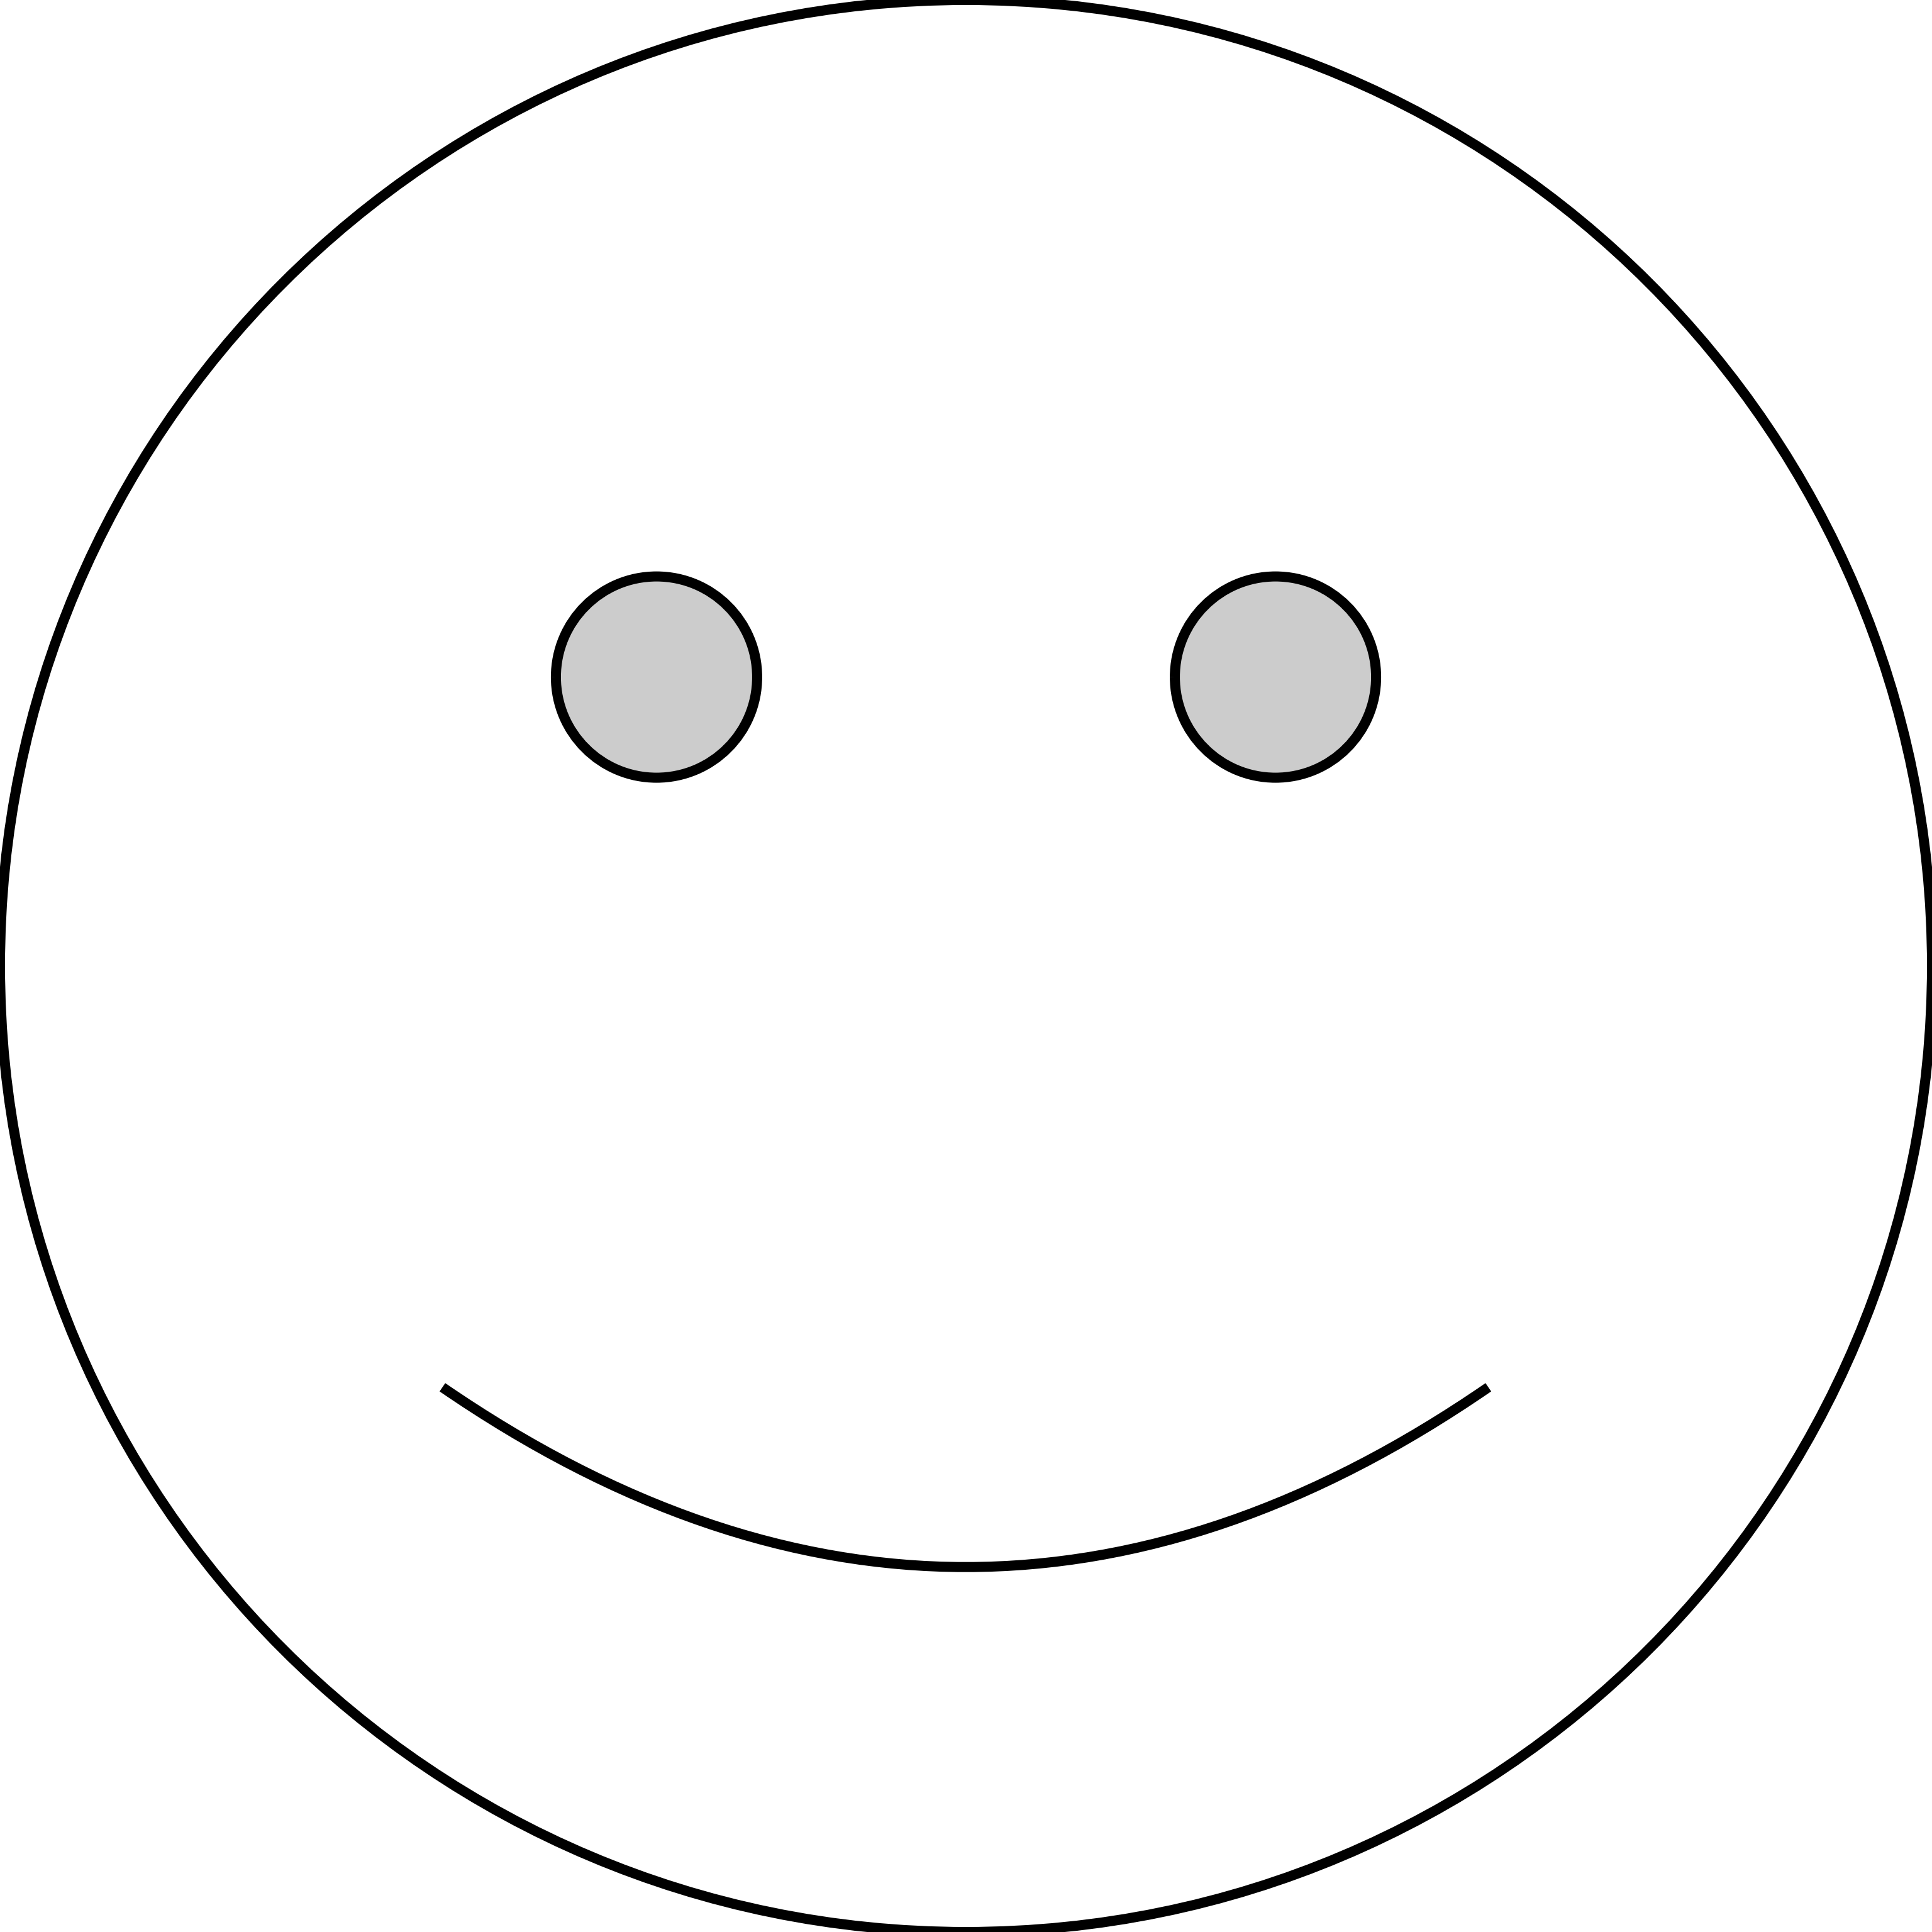

We just have to let go.

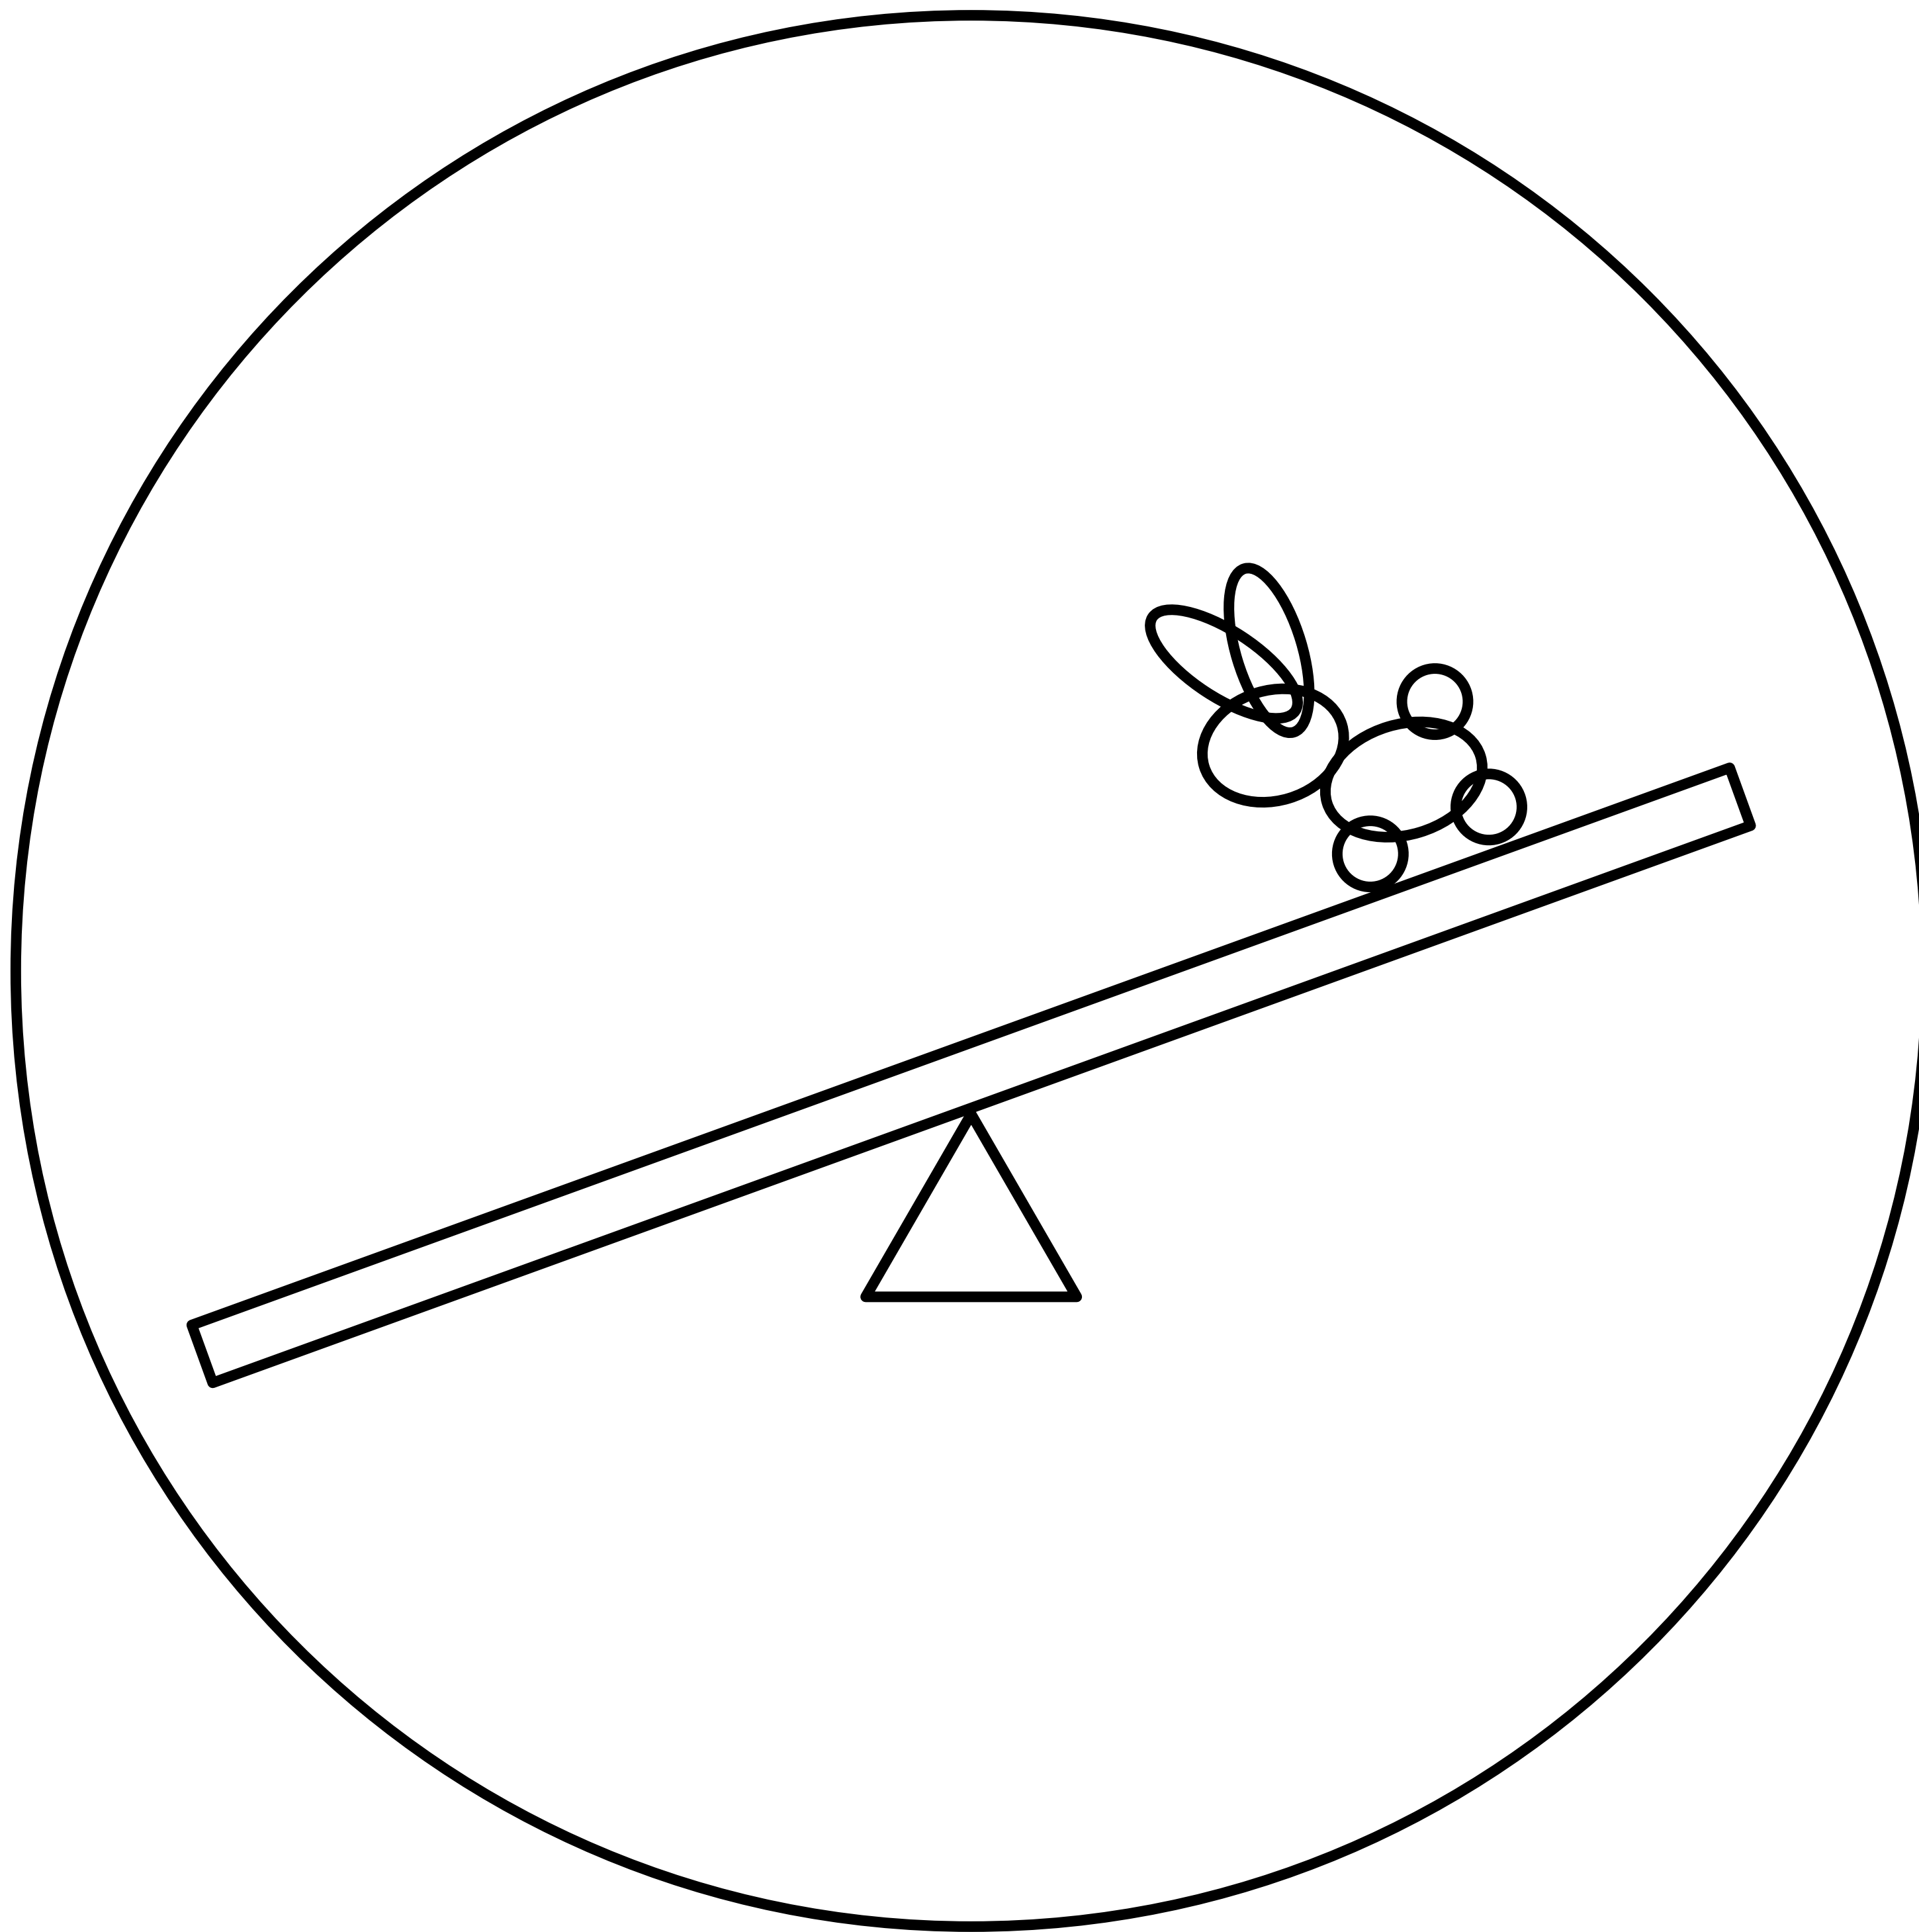

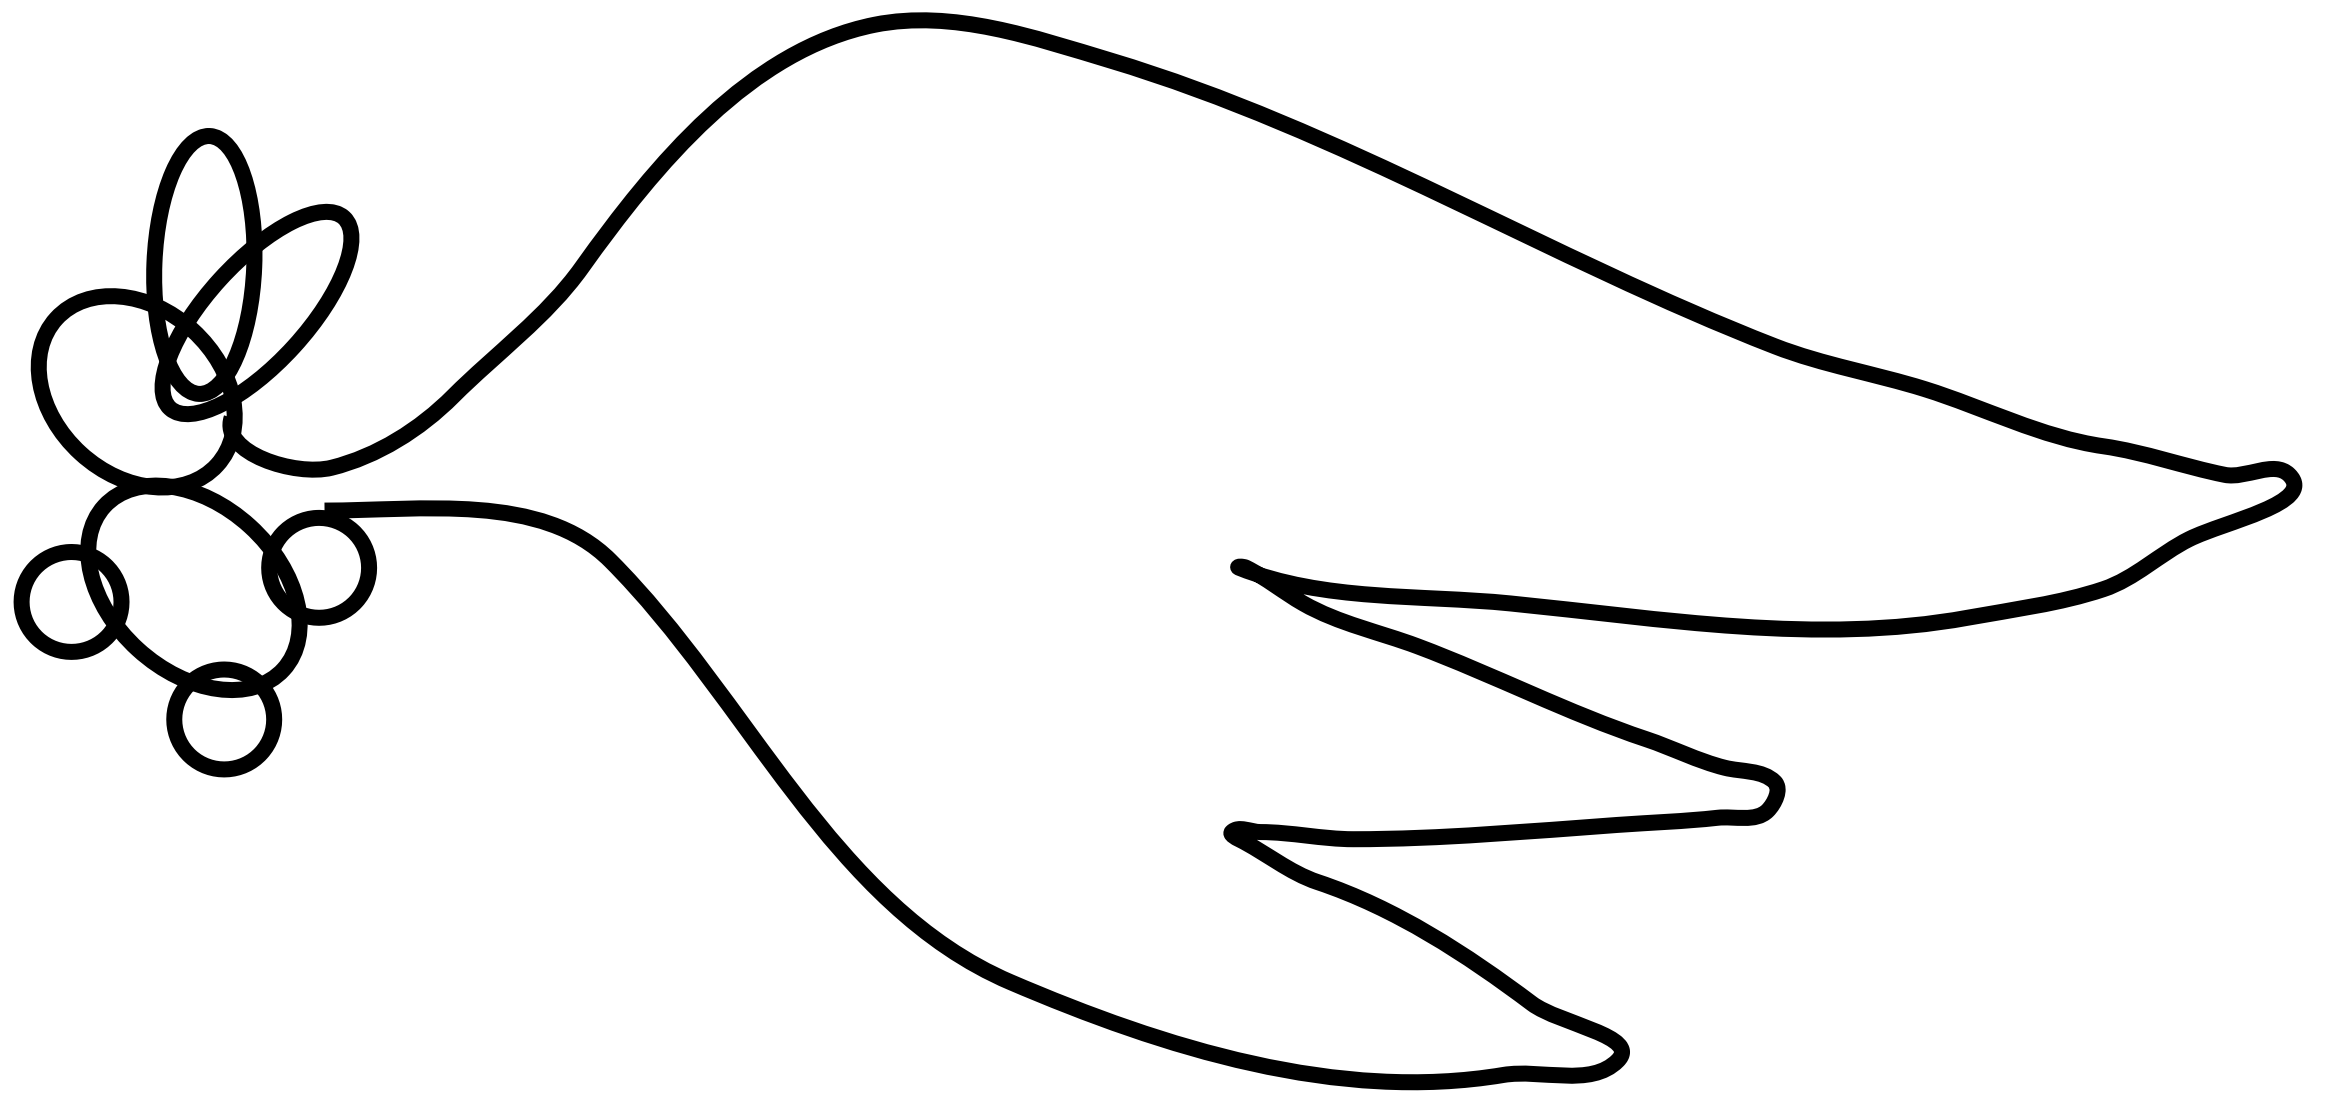

You will be happier without me.

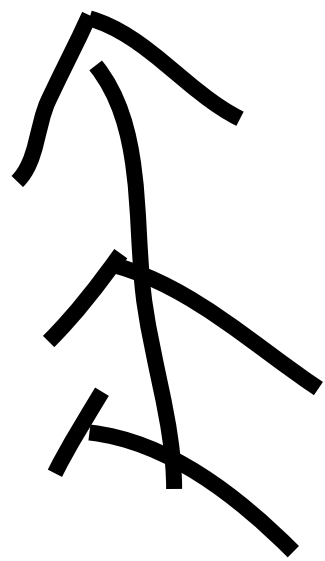

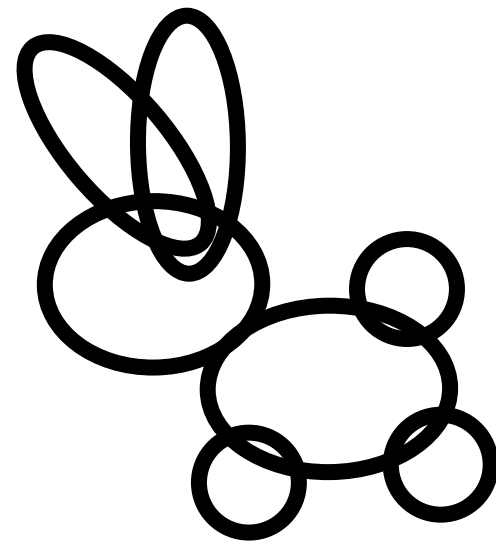

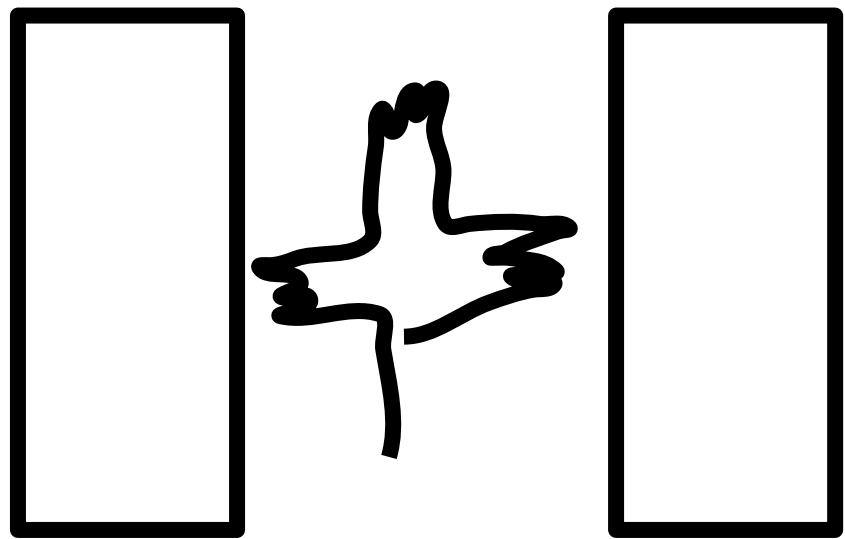

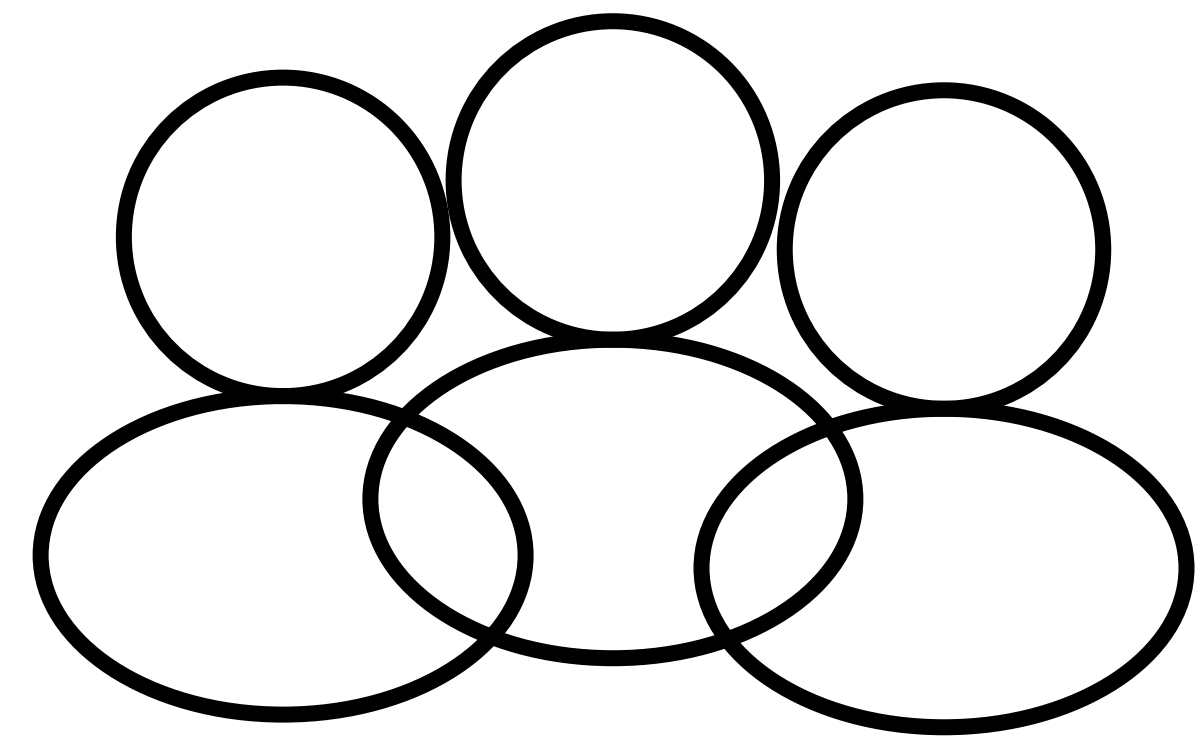

You will have more fun without me.

It is time to spread your wings.

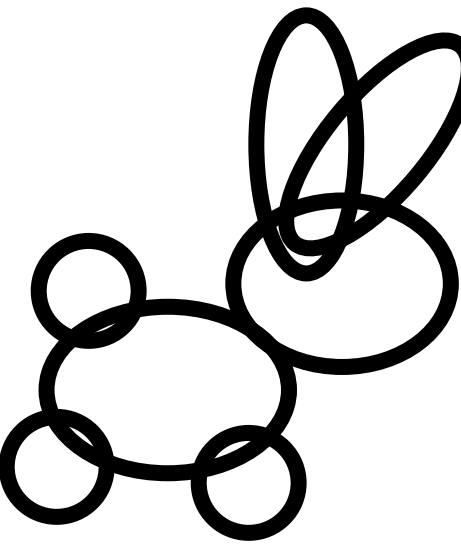

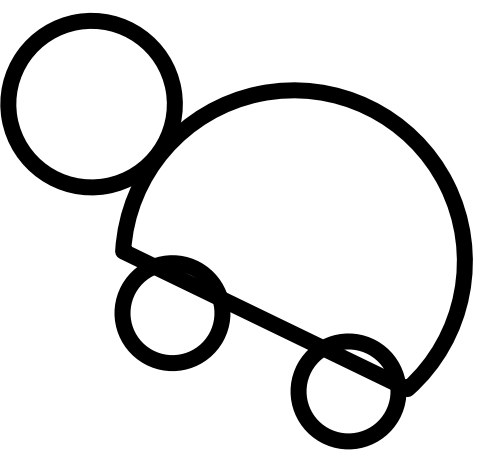

Explore people, places, things.

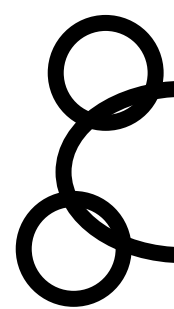

It is time to let go.

It is time to make it so.
