For the life of me, I can't figure out where this strong stench is coming from.

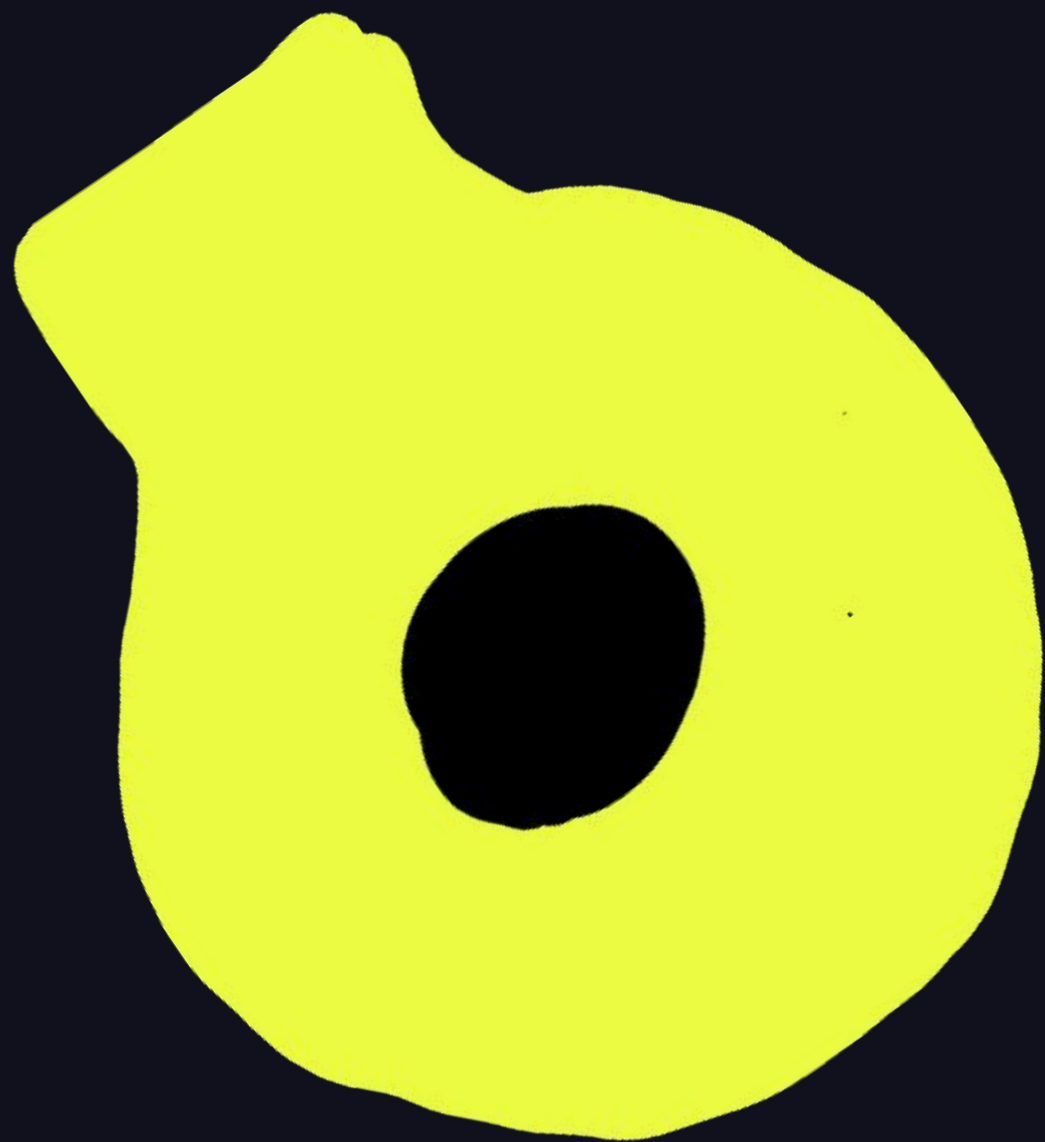

It's driving me insane! I clean and clean and clean. Still, I smell the stench.

The smell must be coming from somewhere beyond the bathroom door.

Could it be the toilet?

Scrub, scrub, scrub.

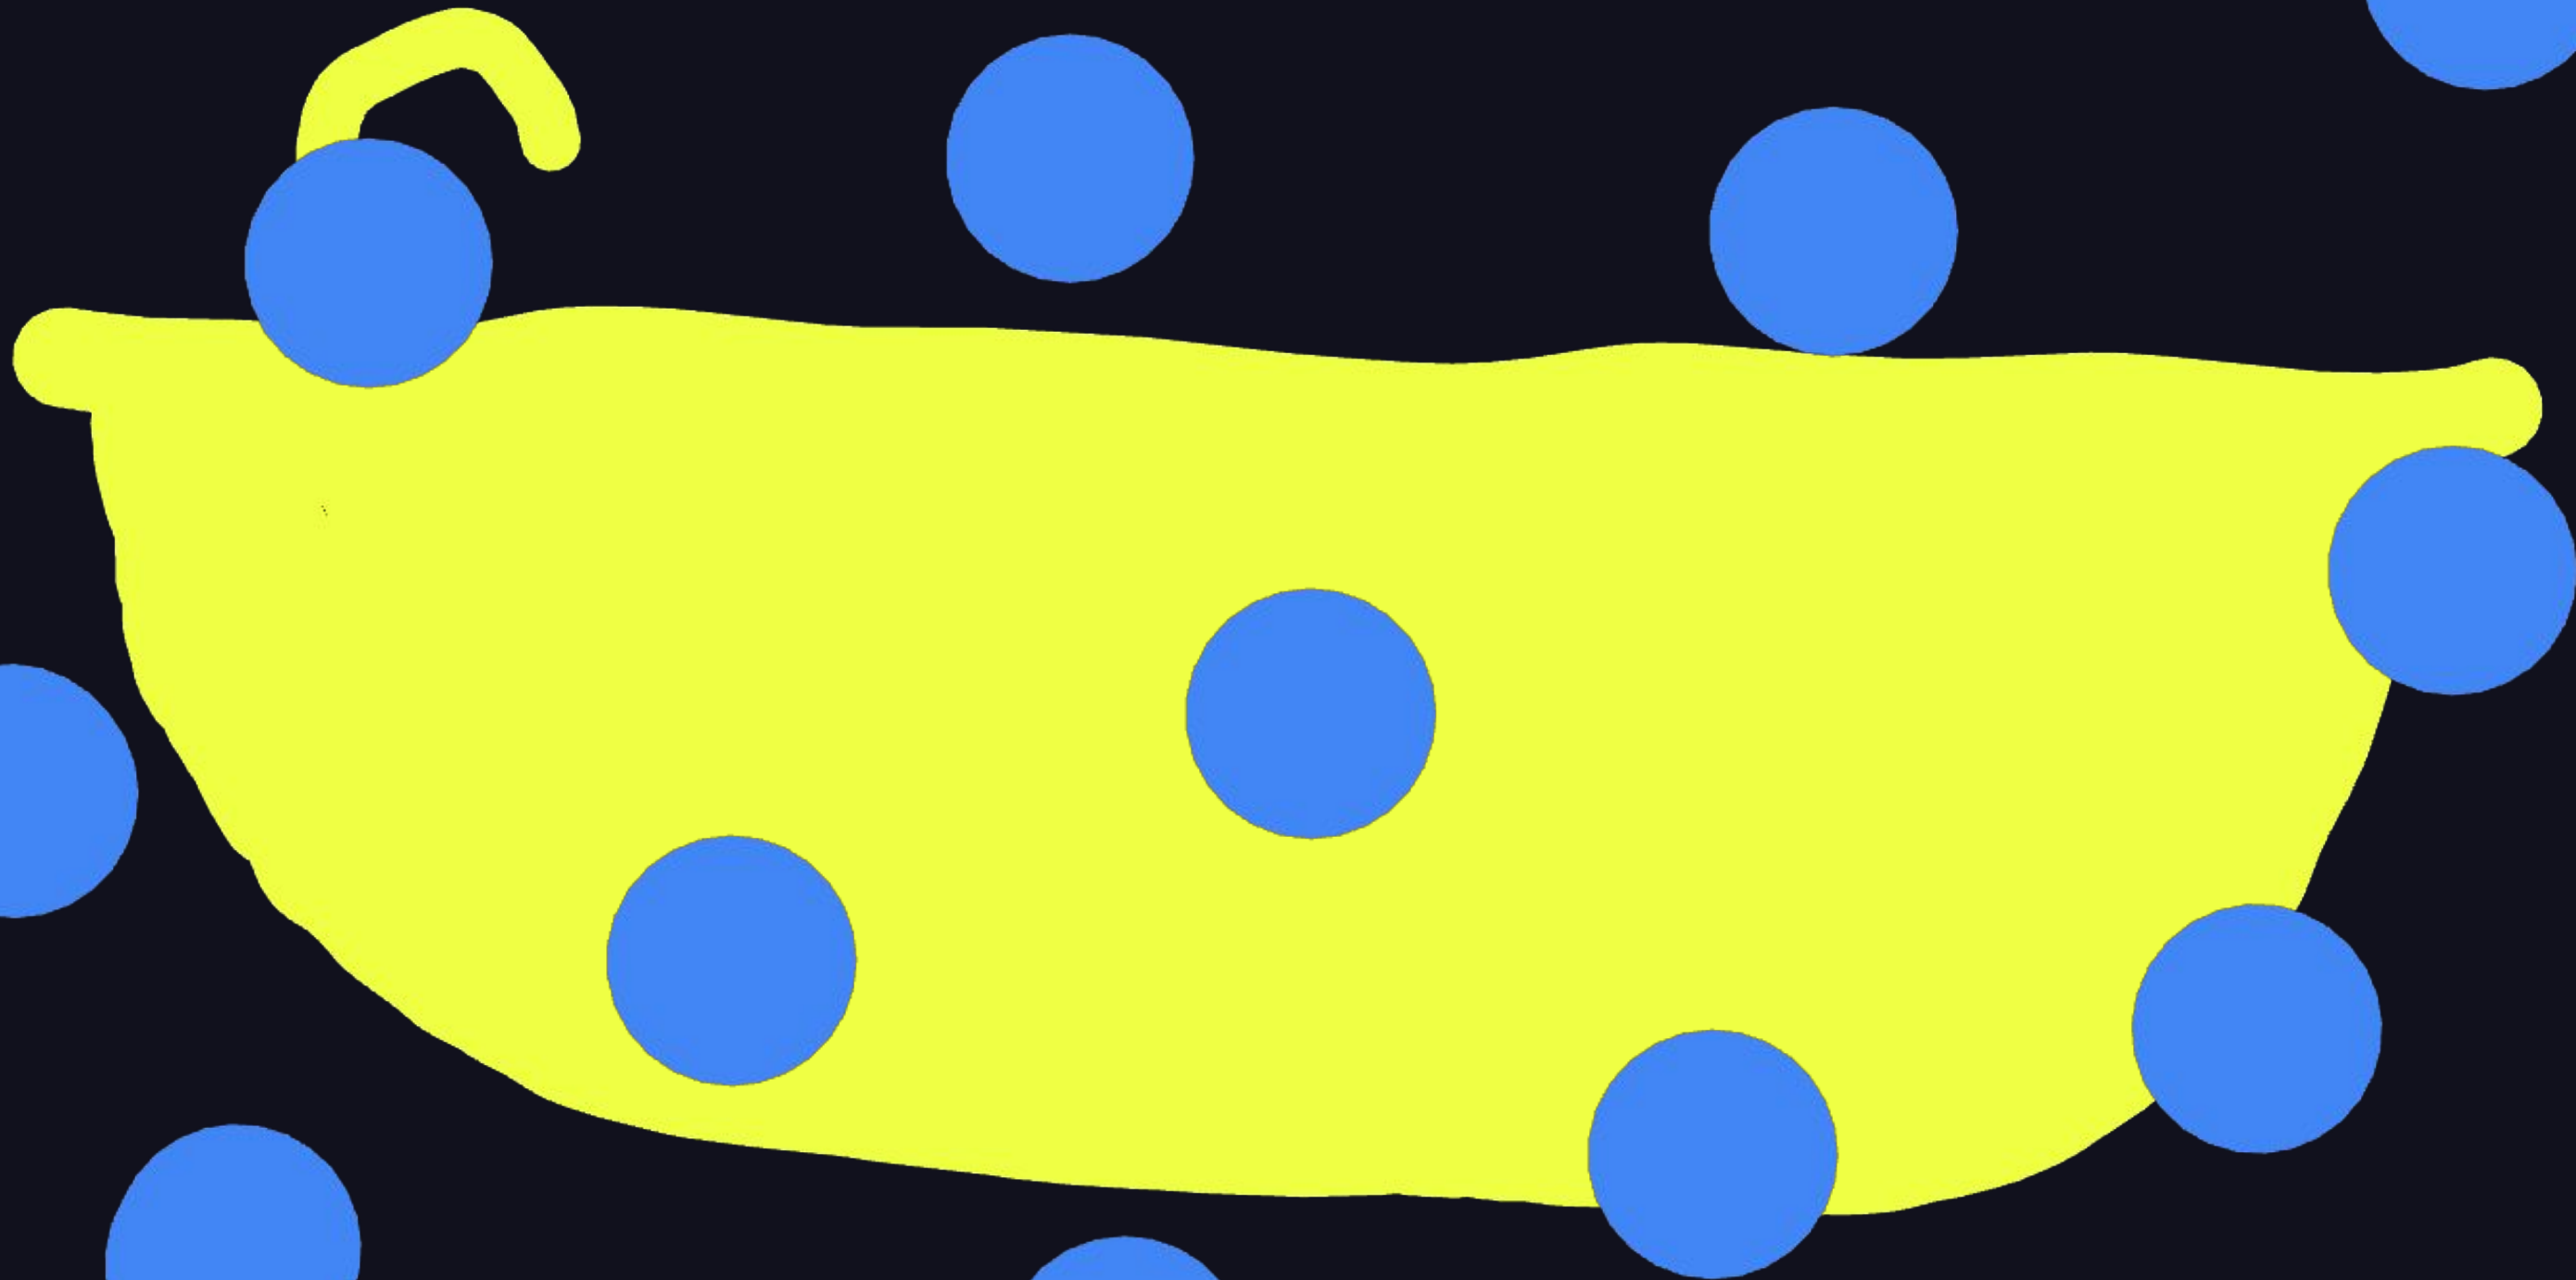

Still, the smell is beyond the bathroom door.

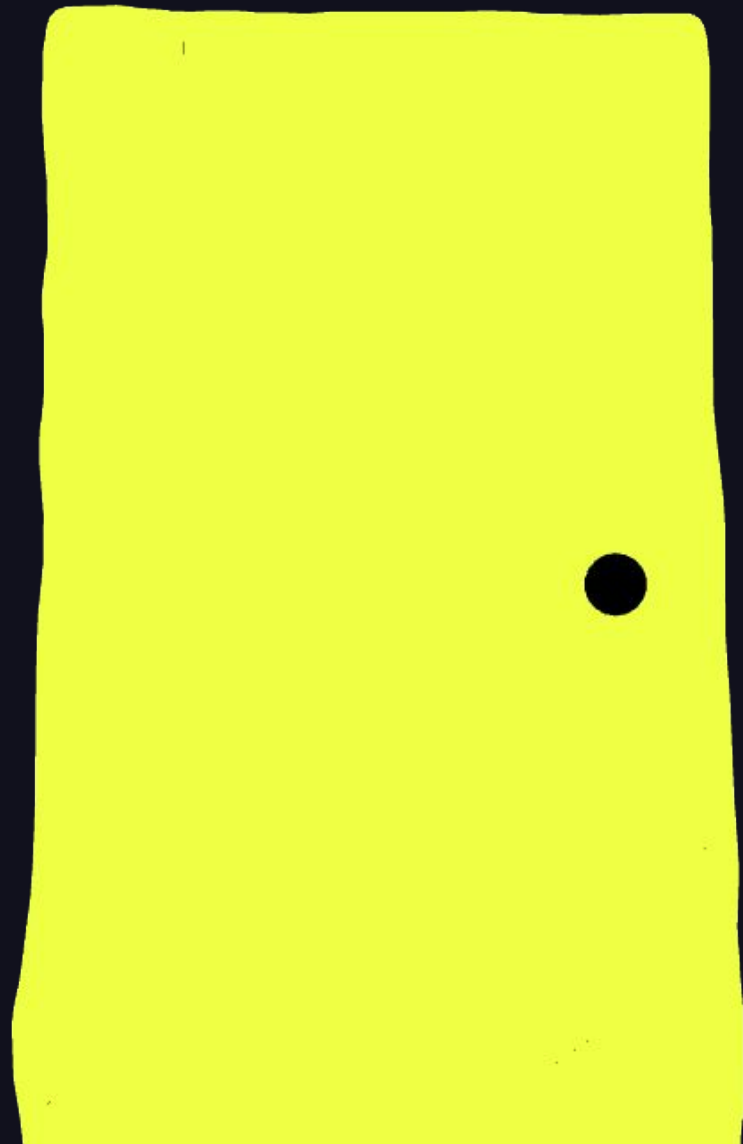

Could it be the bathtub?

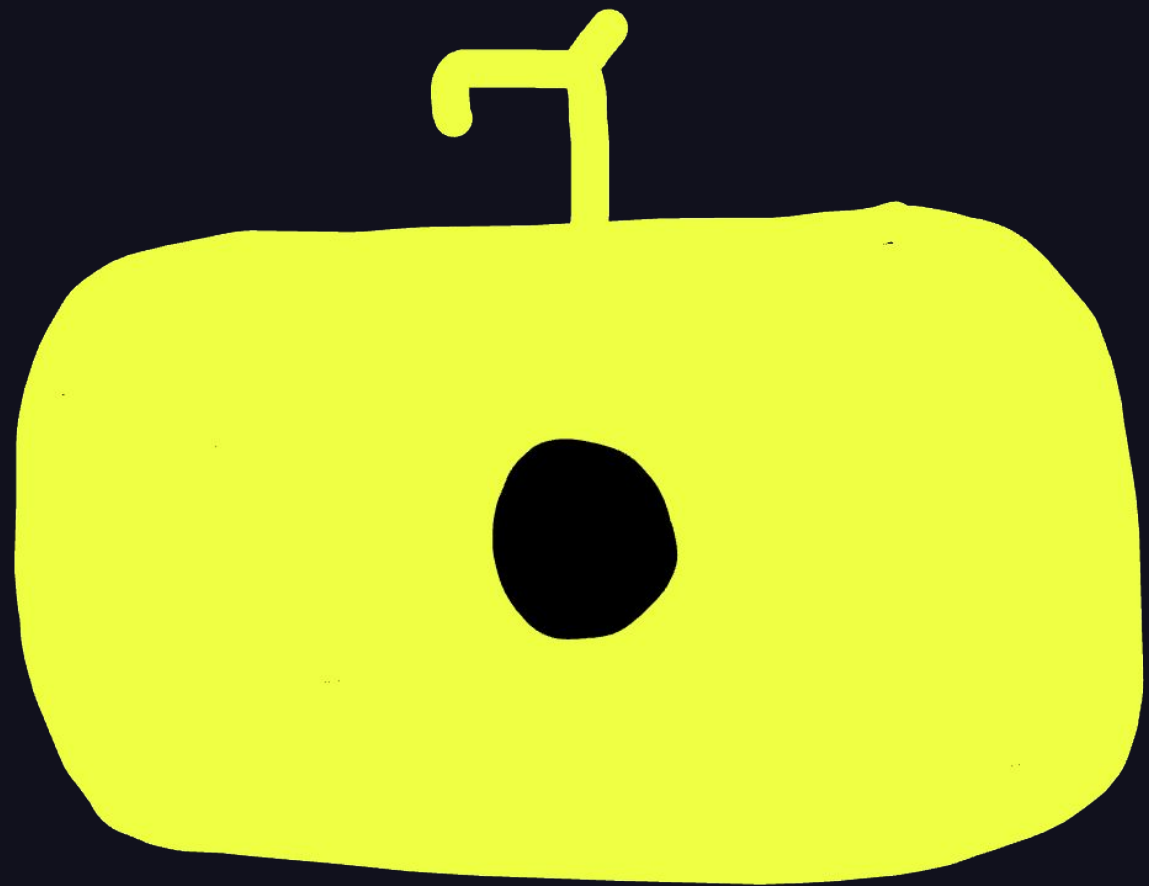

Scrub, scrub, scrub.

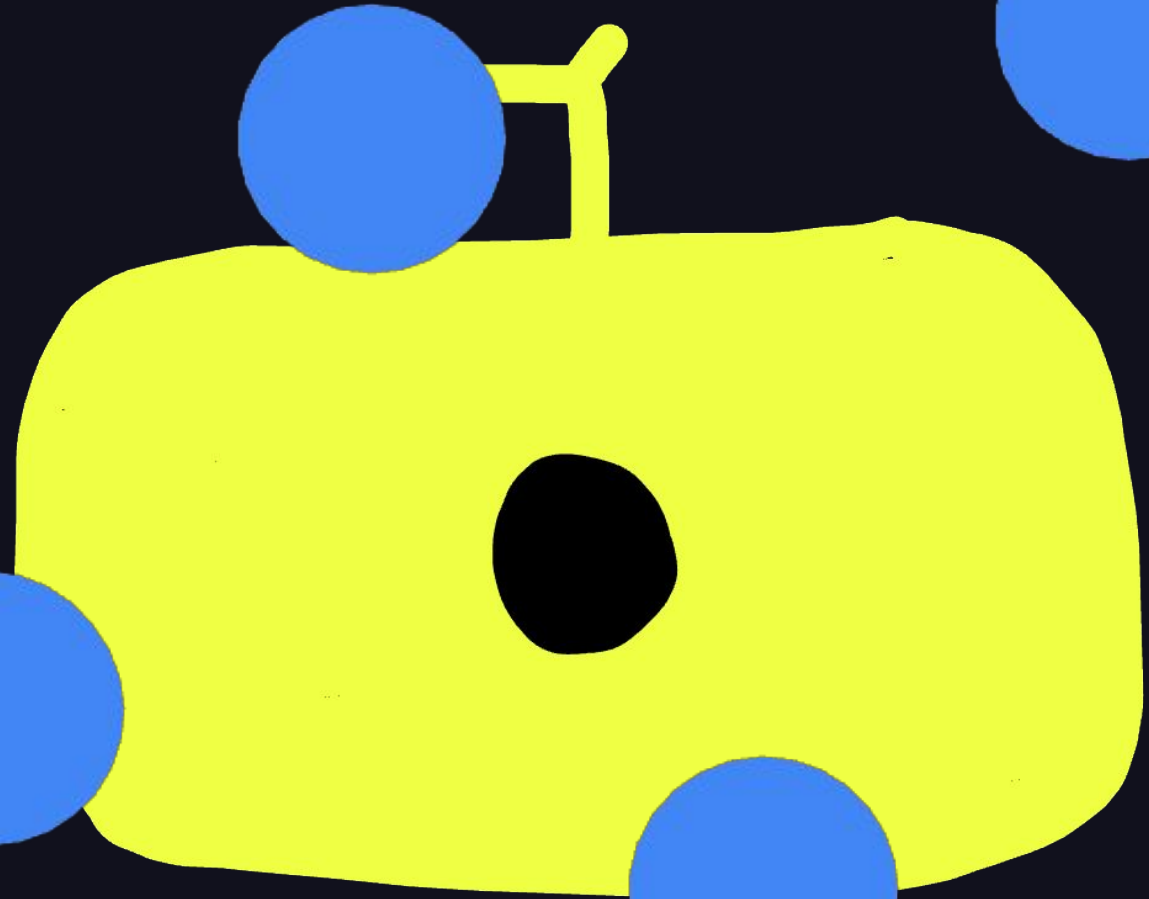

Still, the smell is beyond the bathroom door.

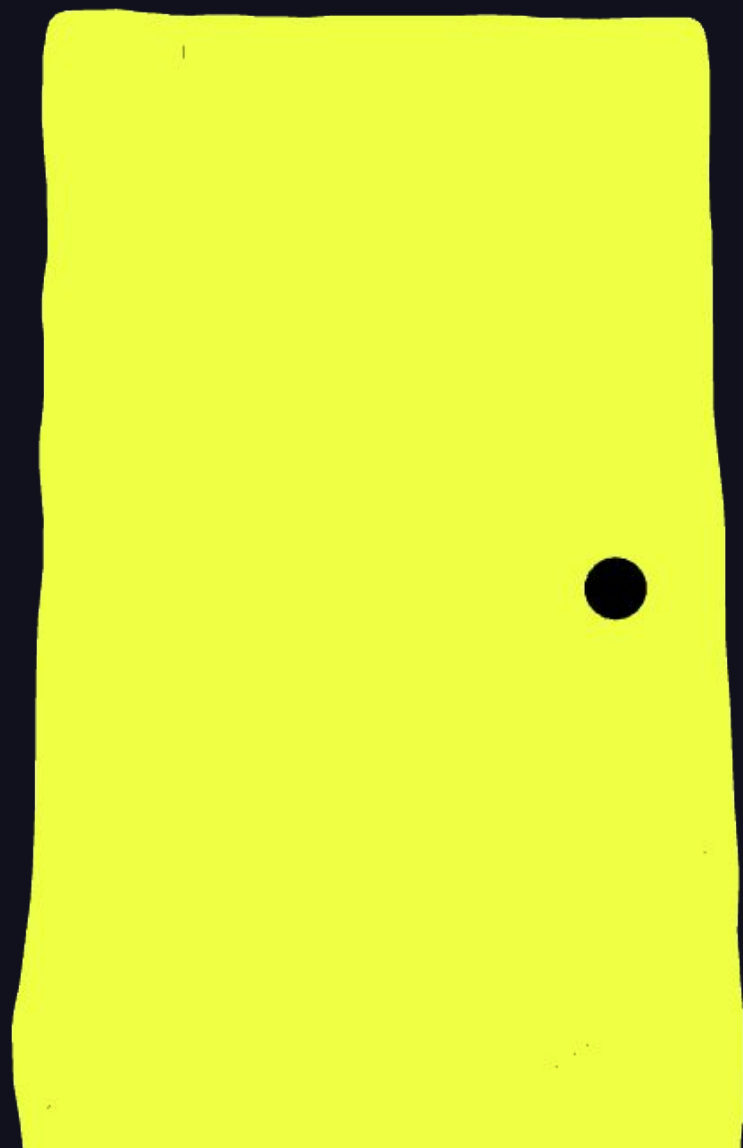

Could it be the sink?

Scrub, scrub, scrub.

Still, the smell is beyond the bathroom door!

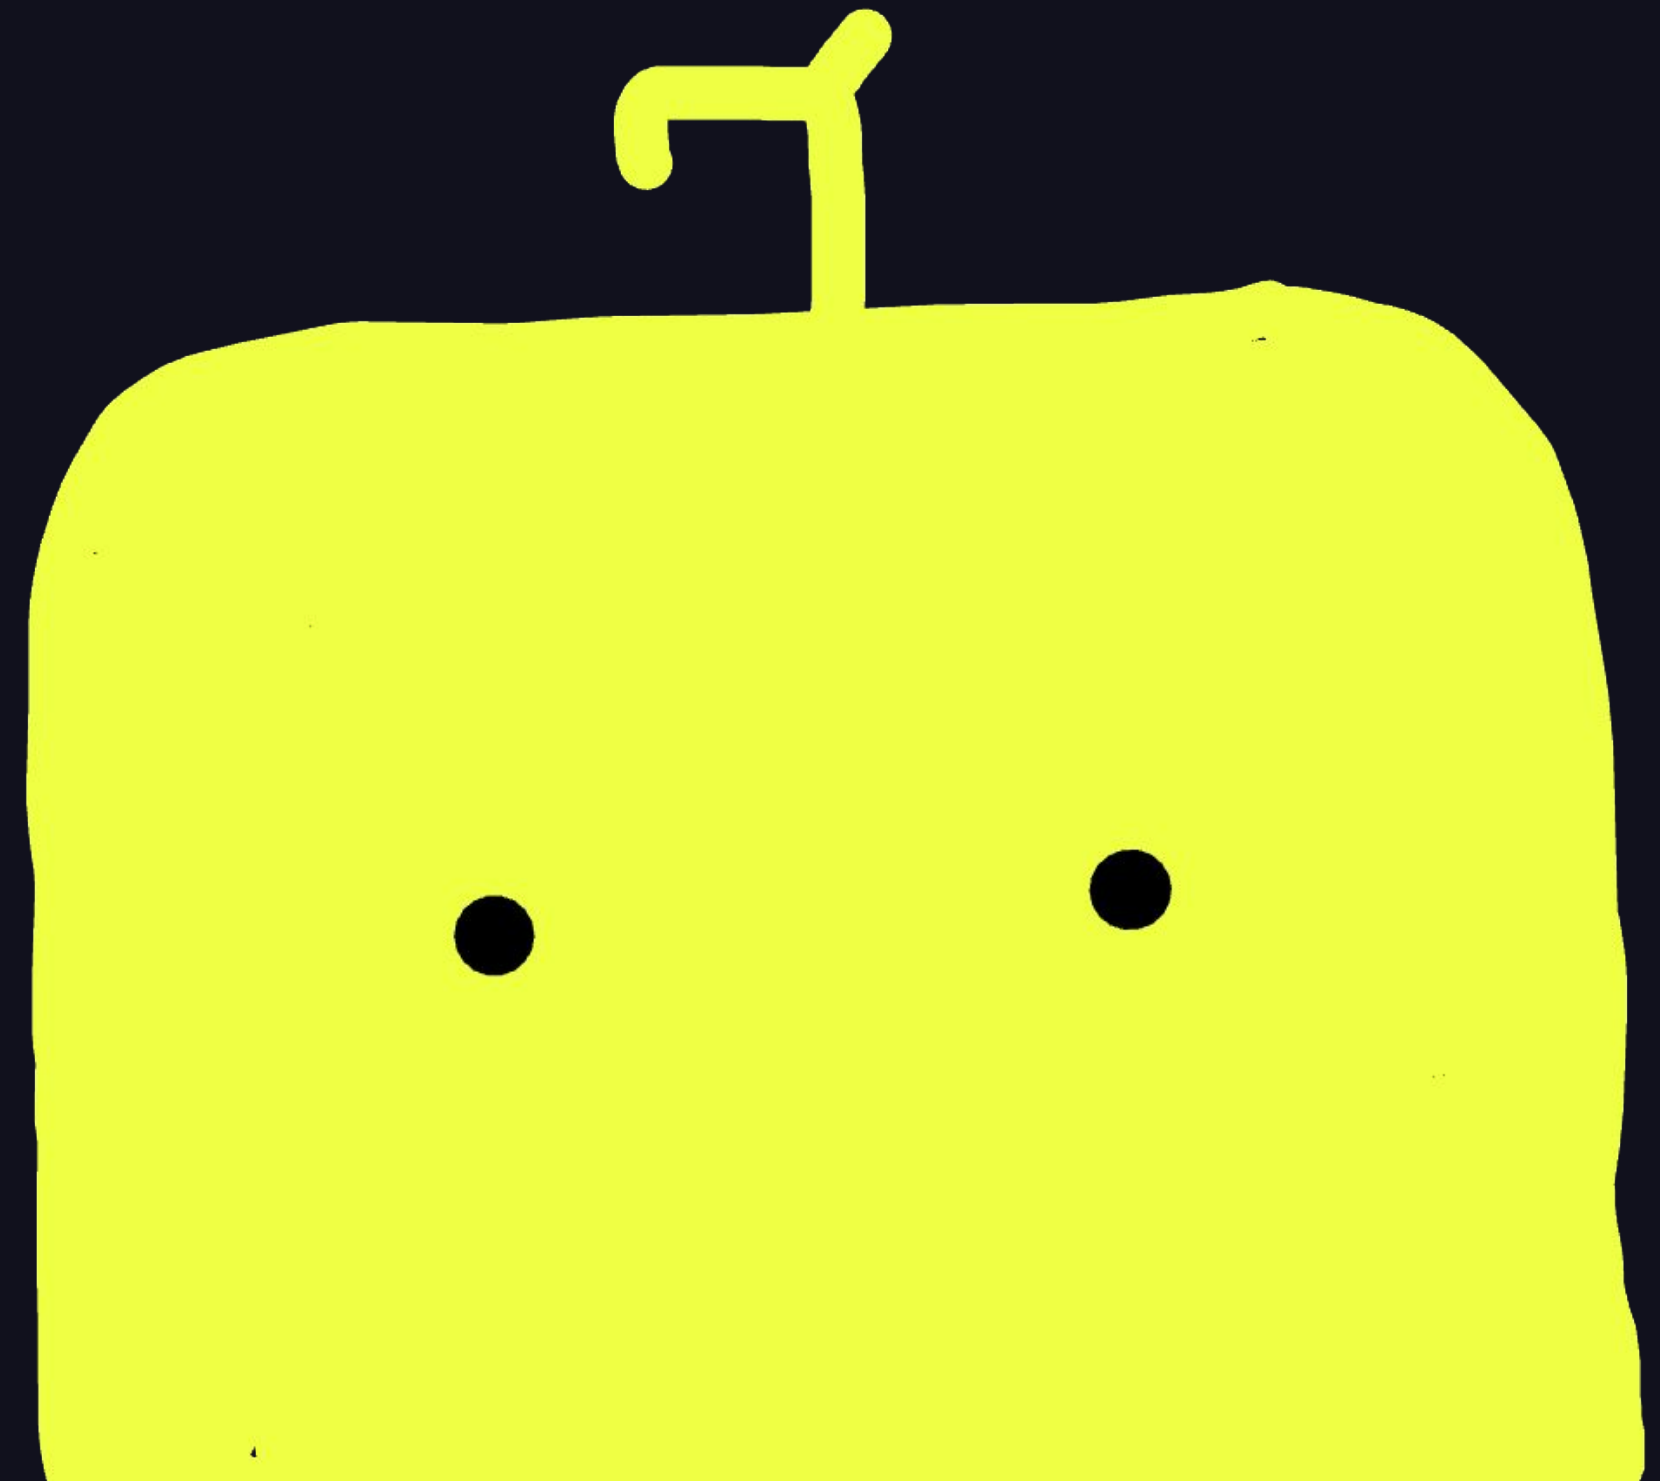

Where could it be?!

Then, all of a sudden, a faint noise was audible.

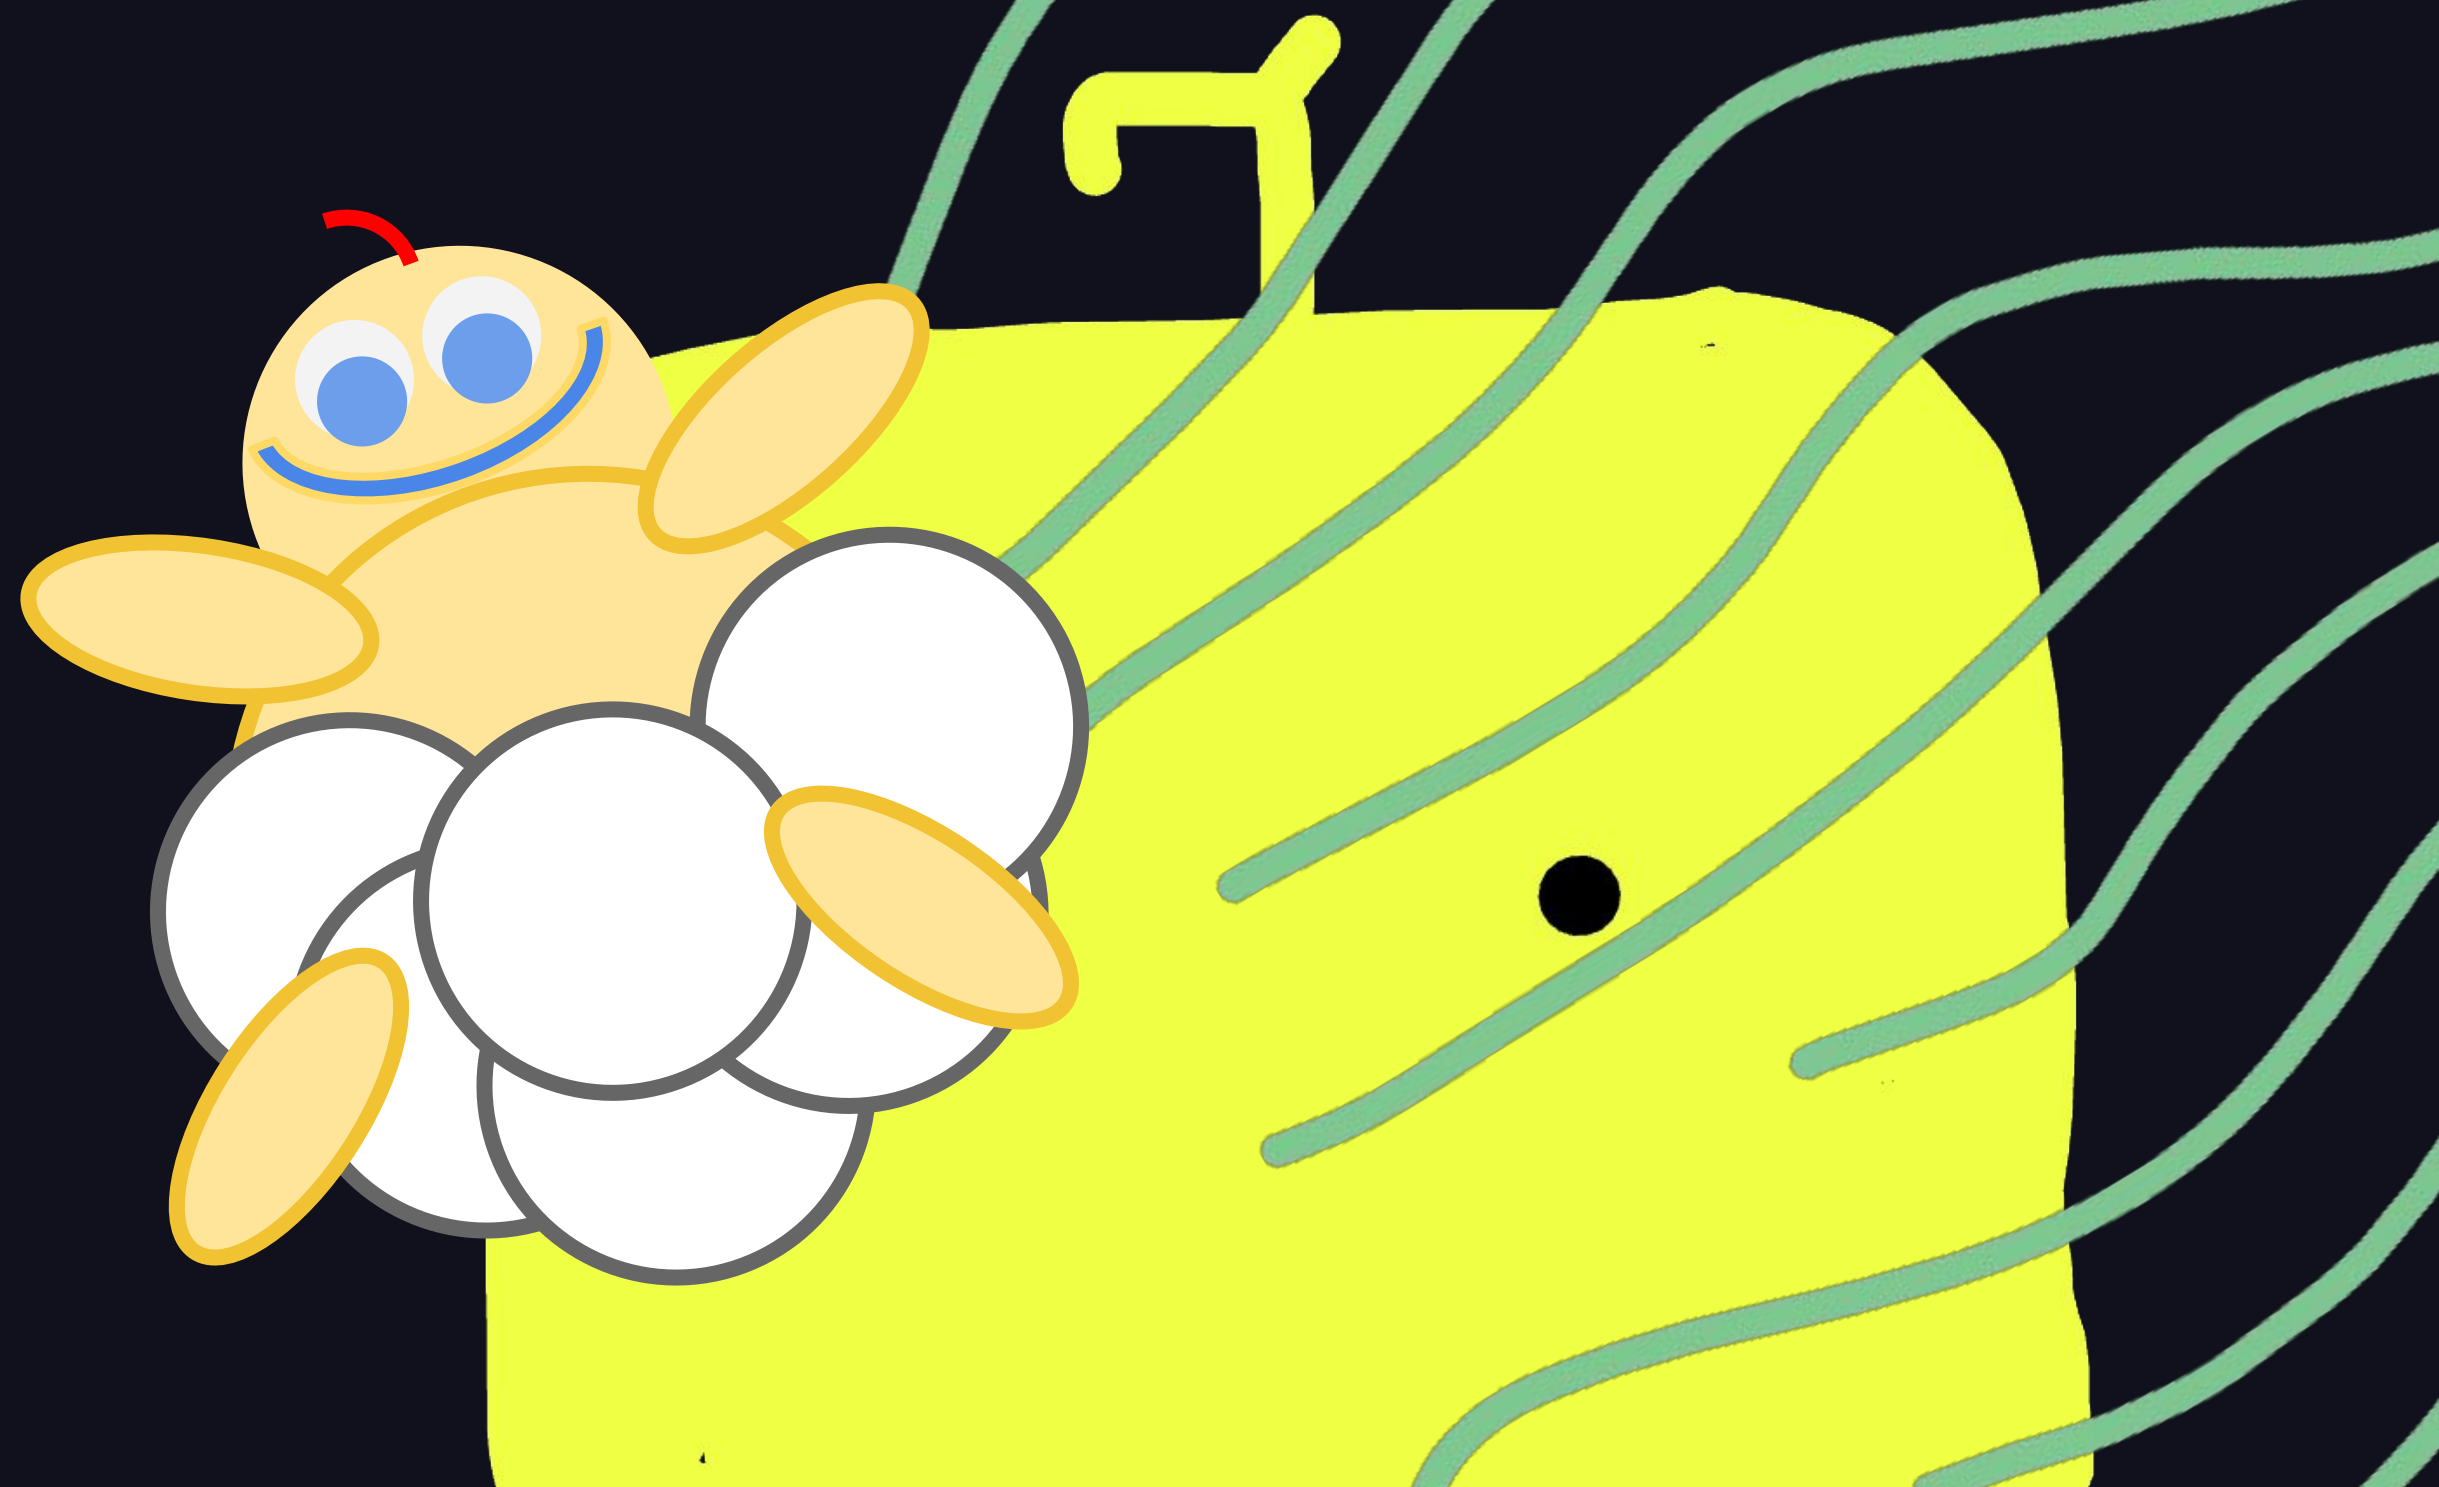

wa wa.

The sound was coming from the cabinet under the sink!

With a quick movement, I opened the cabinet doors to find...

A poopy baby playing hide and seek!

That is the story of the smell beyond the bathroom door.

The end.
